The Mary Manifesto

Making Real Mary's Magnificat

Bringing about real change by:

- Studying the Gospels together
- Responding to the Spirit as we listen to each other's stories
- Reflecting on Jesus' life & love as expressed in Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD)
- Channeling support to the needy through Episcopalians for Global Reconciliation (EGR)

Vision, Mission & the Magnificat

The Mary Manifesto was conceived in 2021 to 'Make Real The Magnificat.' This will include uplifting the lives of underprivileged women and children around the globe, irrespective of nationality, caste, race, or religion.

The Magnificat points towards a reconciliation process that the Spirit opens when we are willing to hear the voices and look into the eyes of others, unheard and unseen. We encourage women to lead, give space for stories, and invite men to a transformed role.

We want to dismantle stereotypes & discrimination, and evolve fundraising models with a global network. We want to make a difference in the lives of the marginalized, and share our emerging learning of global women at the grassroots as together we live into the Magnificat.

Therefore, our Vision is to:

- Encourage the propagation of Mary Manifesto in global, grass-root groups to develop around the Magnificat, the 'Psalm of Change' and listening to one another's stories;
- Offer connections and resources to connect at heart level;
- Invite men as active listeners and supporters of women leading this initiative;
- Build a non-profit to support this vision (currently, Episcopalians for Global Reconciliation).

General Objective

Our goal is to support an inclusive and reconciling conversation that addresses the balance of the feminine and masculine voice in Christianity and in our lives.

Pray with us: The 'Psalm of Change'

Slowly we breathe - we support a space,
singing an ode to 'we' men & women
however we identify...*

Slowly we breathe - where we can be open, be imagined by the best in all of us to do the most for those with the least...*

Slowly we breathe- safe of no accusation,
of no oppression where anger can arise
and blossom into inspiration...*

Slowly we breathe - for the feminine voice
and for voices to be heard that have not been heard, and for those who have been silenced...*

Slowly we breathe - for those who did not hear or could not listen or would not listen...*

Slowly we breathe - for deep and loving reconciliation for feminine & masculine voices to sing in unison again...*

Slowly we breathe - for words that will inspire a thousand years of deeds that will make a difference...*

Slowly we breathe - for faith that enables us to change who we are and be the loving transformation the greater 'we'
wants us to be...*

Slowly we breathe - to feel the curiosity, to give our names, to add our effort to leave a loving impression for millennia to come...*
Slowly we breath – we are the change.
